PHOTOS GO ON DISPLAY

MACARTHUR Community College Photography Exhibition Group will snap up the opportunity to showcase its visual talents during its third annual exhibition in June.

The group named the annual exhibition "Points of View 3" and will be held at Narellan and Campbelltown libraries, as well as the Fairfield museum and gal-

WHAT: Macarthur Community College Photography Exhibition Group

EXHIBITIONS: Artisan & Designer Market at Narellan Library, on Saturday; "Points of View 3" in June

Macarthur Community College photography tutor Debra Pearson formed the group in 2009, and can't wait for its third major exhibition in June.

"The subtitle for Points of View 3 is 'inspirations around us', so our members have artistically captured their own world and their own view of the world," she said.

"You don't have to travel the world to get a beautiful photograph, you can get one in your own back yard and in the Macarthur region."

lery. In the lead-up to the display, residents have the chance to see some of the group's work at the Artisan & Designer Market at Narellan Library, from 10am-2pm on Saturday.
